PLEASE READ BEFORE SIGNING: An Account-to-Account Transfer is a privilege of membership that we are pleased to provide to you as a member to transfer funds to other members' accounts at your request. It remains your responsibility to verify the accuracy all details of your authorized transfer including but not limited to, the recipient's account number, dollar amount of transfer, and date of transfer. If you are uncertain of the accuracy of any detail of the contemplated transfer or if you are concerned about the disclosure of your account number on the recipient's statement, please do not make the transfer and instead consider another method of delivering the funds. Once you have completed the transfer process, the credit union will accept your authorization as final in all respects.
